

Making a Future for Earth

with Sharon Markenson

Saturday, July 16, 2016 - 1:00 pm

Main Library - MLK Jr. Auditorium, 601 Santa Monica Blvd.

Sharon Markenson provides a visual presentation on the dynamics of global warming and climate disruption. She discusses how climate change affects the Earth's natural systems and contributes to extreme weather. Learn the moral, economic, and political dimensions to this urgent issue and solutions that each of us can implement. Sharon is a retired teacher from the Los Angeles Unified School District and part of the Climate Reality Leadership Corps. Co-sponsored by the Citizens' Climate Lobby.

The program is free and open to the public. Seating is limited and on a first arrival basis. For more information call (310) 458-8600 or visit smpl.org. The Santa Monica Public Library is wheelchair accessible. For special disabled services, call Library administration at (310) 458-8606 one week prior to event.

Served by Big Blue Bus lines 1, 5, 7, R7, R10, and 18. Ride your bike. Bicycle parking racks are available at the Main and the branch libraries.
