Commission On the Status of Women COSW

Like us on Facebook by visiting
Santa Monica Commission on the Status of Women

Mission:

The purpose of the Commission on the Status of Women is to enhance the status of women in our community. The Commission will promote these goals through investigation of, advocacy for, and policy development regarding issues relevant to women and girls, and by creating leadership and career advancement opportunities for women and girls in our community.

Who We Are:

Established in 1981, City Council appoints nine (9) volunteer women Commissioners who live in Santa Monica to serve a 4 year term. Individuals appointed represent various segments of the City's population.

Appointments to the Commission are made throughout the year as vacancies occur. All appointments are voted on by City Council during a Council Meeting after reviewing applications and hearing recommendations from current Commissioners.

Meeting Information:

COSW meets on the second Wednesday of each month at 7:00 PM at the Ken Edwards Center, 527 4th Street, Santa Monica, CA 90401.

All meetings are open to the public and meeting information is posted on the COSW website: www.smgov.net/cosw

2010 - 2015 Strategic Plan

- Review and promote "The 2004 Report on the Status of Women & Girls in Santa Monica.
- Raise awareness of and seek solutions for domestic violence and other safety issues impacting Santa Monica women and girls.
- Identify, publicize and support mentoring and leadership opportunities that serve young women and girls in Santa Monica.
- Gain a better understanding of how affordable housing affects women in Santa Monica and determine the COSWs role in addressing the issue.
- Foster career, political and volunteer advancement opportunities for Santa Monica women.
- Identify and publicize resources in Santa Monica that support the needs of women and girls.

For more information about the Santa Monica Commission on the Status of Women and/or to review our current strategic plan, please visit our website at www.smgov.net/cosw.
