

Celebrating Sustainability, Literature, and Community

Thursday, September 24, 2015 - 7:00pm

MLK Jr. Auditorium - Main Library, 601 Santa Monica Blvd

Featuring

PAUL and ANNA CUMMINS in

A FATHER/DAUGHTER CONVERSATION ABOUT PERSONAL PASSION, SOCIAL JUSTICE AND SUSTAINABILITY

Santa Monica's own educator and author Paul Cummins and emerging environmental leader Anna Cummins discuss how we can envision ourselves as leaders for social justice and a sustainable planet.

Paul Cummins is the lead founder of Crossroads School and the founder/CEO of the Coalition for Engaged Education (formerly New Visions Foundation). He is the author of four books on education and two volumes of original poetry.

Anna Cummins, Paul's daughter, is the co-founder and Executive Director of The 5 Gyres Institute, whose goal is to empower citizens to become leaders in combatting the global health crisis of plastic pollution.
