

Marianne Simon, Poetic Plantings- Biography

In 1999, Marianne Simon left a cushy job with MGM to start her own landscape design business, Poetic Plantings. She founded Poetic Plantings with the vision of creating sustainable gardens that would not only delight her clients, but also help in healing the earth.

In 2007, Marianne received a certificate in Landscape Architecture from UCLA extension. During that period she further developed her skills at the landscape architecture firm Kathryn Spitz & Associates. Last year she became a G-3 certified Sustainable Landscape Professional, and began sharing her passion for nature and sustainability as a teacher with their educational outreach program to homeowners. She is also on Santa Monica's list of approved sustainable landscapers.
