The Rent Control Board makes the Community Resource Directory available as a public service. The organizations listed have been included solely because they claim to provide assistance to landlords or tenants in rent control and consumer-related matters. The Board makes no representations about the organizations named on this list. Inclusion of any organization is not intended in any way as a recommendation or endorsement of such organization. The Board has no knowledge about the types or quality of services provided by these organizations or by any individual attorney who may be recommended by them. Except for those listed, the Board has no knowledge as to the fees, if any, which may be charged for consultation or other services provided. Landlords and tenants who contact organizations or attorneys are advised to request that they be told in advance the services which will be provided plus fees and costs, if any, which they will be required to pay.

Any non-profit organization which provides assistance to landlords or tenants may ask to be listed on the Community Resource Directory by sending their request to be added to this list to the Santa Monica Rent Control Board: 1685 Main St., Room 202, Santa Monica, CA 90401.
